iDID

I did. I noticed. I made it through.

A gentle journal for dissociation, trauma responses, and the people who care.

- Note what happens in a few taps: when, where, triggers, mood, parts present, lost time.
- Your trust circle, your rules: invite family and friends, and choose what each person can see.
- See patterns and share a private, read-only view with your therapist.
- Find support near you, plus calming tools for hard moments.
- Private by design: encrypted on your device. No ads, no trackers.
